Land for Sale.

I would sell the Plantation on which I now reside, containing two hundred and fifty acres of fertile land, of a soil highly succeptible of improvement by clover and plaster, and which is proved to be eminently adapted to the production of tobacco of the finest quality. It lies within two miles of a public landing on Herring Bay, from which two regular packets ply week-ly to Baltimore, presenting an easy and speedy transportation of produce to that market. There are on this place a convenient Dwelling House, with the necessary Out Houses, and an abundance of fire wood and rall stuff, with a sufficiency of meadow land. This place is high and healthy, abounds in springs of excellent water, in an agreeable neighbourhood, and convenient to several places of public worship. It produces the ordinary grains of the country to good advanage, and is within six miles of the Patuzent River. The terms would be accommodation.
